Huntington Station Festival ~ July 20th

One person can make a difference- but 100 people can make even more of an impact! 100 Women Who Care About Long Island is a new group that's coming together to support local charities, but it won't require you to put in a lot of time or money. Join them for their first meeting on July 16, 2013 at Jewel Restaurant, 400 Broad Hollow Road in Melville from 6:15 PM to 7:30 PM. For more information, click here.

Sandy Disaster

Volunteers Still Needed

The Run to Remember 5K is an annual fundraiser to help build and maintain a 9/11 memorial at Sachem High School East in Farmingville- a permanent honor for those lost from the Sachem community. This year's event will include a NEW 2-mile Obstacle Run, a Children's Fun Run and finally, the official unveiling of the Sachem East Memorial.
